

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.
We used to receive many calls each month, now we are almost free of any calls a month.